Language relating to CONTRACTORS, SUBCONTRACTORS, Vendors, and CONSULTANTS

Language to be made a part of ALL RFPs

Responses to this RFP and the subsequent agreement between the Town and the successful bidder will be subject to the Suffield Code of Ethics

Language to be made a part of ALL CONTRACTS, and PURCHASE ORDERS

(1) The Contractor, Consultant, or Vendor agrees that this contract or purchase order and the actions of the Contractor, Consultants, or Vendors are subject to the provisions of the Suffield Code of Ethics as contained in the Town Ordinances.

(2) Should the Contractor, Consultant, or Vendor be found by the Suffield Ethics Commission to have violated the Code, the Town may terminate this contract and take such other action as the Town may have at law or in equity.

(3) The Contractor shall incorporate the above paragraphs into any sub-contracts or purchase orders.

(4) Contractor's signature on this contract, or the Vendor's order acknowledgement, acknowledge receipt and review of the Suffield Code of Ethics.

(5) Contractors, Consultants, and Vendors shall be responsible for disclosing interests and relationships that could be perceived as a possible conflict of interest under the Suffield Code of Ethics.
